1. District IV meeting was held on January 9, 2008 at Keyboard Connection in Jacksonville. Fourteen members attended. A program was presented by Liz Kiebler on "Certification Made Easy." After a wonderful brunch, Liz presented some of her favorite Rachmaninoff selections

2. District IV Student Day was held on January 26, 2008 at FCCJ South Campus. Eleven teachers entered 45 students...Primary through Level Nine. The students did very well in their audition and exams and many received the new State honors medal.

3. District IV competitive Concerto was held at Jacksonville University on Saturday, March 15, 2008. Six teachers participated, entering twenty students...two in Junior, nine in Intermediate and two in Senior division.

4. District IV in connection with District III have been working on FSMTA 2008 Conference. Many hours of work, many trips to and from Gainesville, many emails, many phone calls, have been the main focus of our district duties for many months

Respectfully submitted,

Jo Plunkett
