Re: Community Service Awards

It is with great pleasure that I announce to you that there were six applicants for the FSMTA Community Service Awards for 2011.

There were five applicants for the LeRoy Greenspan Award. Anna Bethea, student of Lynda Cast from District I– Okaloosa County; Spencer Robelen, student of Tina Raimondi from District VI – Broward County; Anjali Shankar, student of Eva Roth from District VI– Palm Beach County; Jayla Gillaspie, student of Helen Niedung from District VII – Lee County; and Henry Pires, student of Carmen Conway from District VIII – Sarasota County were the nominees. The winner was Henry Pires. Henry and his teacher were notified at the end of May.

There was one applicant for the Local President’s Award. Rachel M. L. Cramer, student of Marian Cox from District VIII – Sarasota County. The winner was Rachael Cramer. She and her teacher were notified at the end of May.

Each of the winners – will receive a plaque, a certificate of recognition, and a check during the Third General Session at the FSMTA 77th Annual Conference, which will be Sunday, November 6, 2011. The LeRoy Greenspan winner will receive a check for $500 and The Local Association President will receive a check for $200.

The judges for 2011 were FSMTA Director Millicent Callobre, FSMTA Director Helen King, and Tallahassee Music Teachers Association Member Barbara Willis.
